EDITORIAL

Welcome to the July Edition. School holidays are just around the corner. Whether that fills you with dread or anticipation, we hope that you all have a wonderful Summer, enjoy any holidays you may have booked or our own lovely surroundings if you are not getting away.

The general election (for anyone who has been hidden under a rock) is on July 4th. As previously reported in the Burton News, because of a change in constituency boundaries, we are now part of the Morecambe and Lunesdale constituency and will, therefore, definitely lose Tim Farron as our MP.

There are 5 candidates standing for election: Lizzie Collinge (Lab), Gina Dowding (Green), Peter Jackson (LibDem), David Morris (Con) and Barry Parsons (Reform). We can't suggest who you should vote for but we do urge everyone to use their vote and be very grateful that we live in a democratic society! Do remember to take photo ID with you when you go to vote!

We have an apology to make to Stephen Thexton regarding his last article about the Drake Equation for calculating the probability of connecting with intelligent alien life forms. We apologise for not including the equation! For those of you who were foiled in your attempts to find a solution - here it is:

$$N = R^* \times fp \times ne \times fl \times fi \times fe \times L.$$

You will need to refer back to June to translate the terms!

Please would readers note that letters & articles must include a valid name & address. This can be with-held from publication on request. We will not publish any anonymous letters, or material which, in the opinion of the Editorial Committee, is of an offensive or defamatory nature. BN reserves the right to edit letters & articles in the interests of magazine space.

We have previously mentioned that last year saw us losing some of our regular advertisers. To try to encourage new custom we are publishing a list of prices and size options on page 23 and, as an introductory offer to those taking up a full year of advertising space at the normal 1/8 page size, we promise to make your first advert a half-page one. In order to be fair to current advertisers, we will extend this offer to you, whenever space allows us.

The regular quiz night at the King's Arms is a well attended and popular event. This month it is in aid of the Burton Morewood School, as you can see from the poster on page 13.

We would like to welcome Peter Kay as one of our contributors. Peter is a poet and author who has recently moved to the village. He has sent us three of his poems for publication. We include the first this month and shall share the others in the next two editions. We hope you appreciate his talent and sense of humour as much as we do. If anyone else would like to try out their writing skills, we would be happy to hear from you!

Your current editors will have produced 3 years of Burton News with the October 2024 Edition. We feel it is time for another team to take over and put their own stamp on the magazine and so will be standing down at the year end. We are very grateful for the support of the villagers and, for both of us, it has been a good way of getting to know people and societies within the village.

Our Treasurer, Clive Horsford, will also stand down at the end of 2024 - after many years diligent service. So we have a very important advert for Committee vacancies on page 7. We will be happy to "show the ropes" to anyone who would like to take on these roles. If you are interested, please email :

burtonnewseditor@gmail.com

to find out more. Enjoy the Summer.

Readers' Letters

Ding Dong

As you know we have worked hard to keep the bell ringing team going forward in St James. Last year we won the title of Striking Champions as a result of the practice and hard work put in by our team.

This year we are running some training over several days in August; hosting not only UK bell ringers but some from far away, including Hawaii. The UK has the longest tradition of bell ringing, and the most churches with bells across the world. Apparently we are considered "world leaders" in this ancient skill so people across the globe are keen to take up any training they can get - right now the UK needs as many world leader titles as it can get!

This will result in ringing in the tower on 9th and 10th August 10am - 12 Noon and 2pm - 4pm and on the 11th we will ring for the Sunday church service as usual 10.15am to 11am and then the final training will take place at 2pm - 4pm on the same day. It will not be solid ringing in these time slots as debriefs and learning will also take place

We realise this may seem a lot but its a one-off and we hope you will bear with us for this extra ringing - to offset this we will NOT be ringing on Monday 5th August on our normal practice night.

Any queries please get in touch.

Burton Women's Institute

Despite our Speaker unfortunately cancelling earlier in the morning, members had a lively and enjoyable meeting. Our President, Andrea, stepped into the breach with a very amusing and interesting quiz on facts about Gin. We were also given a 'rating' for our answers as well !!!.

We had interesting reports - firstly about the Olive Clarke Challenge. Our entry being the communal herb garden in the corner of the Hall car park - herbs available for all.

At the 'Country Fest' members had contributed to a co-operative entry entitled 'Riot of Colour'; see photo. It was delightful and on display at the meeting - we received second prize. Betty Prickett also got a 'first' for her colour monster made out of recycled materials; this was very clever and also on display. Members are now thinking of our entry for the Westmorland Show in September.

Andrea, Liz F and Helena attended the screening of the WI National AGM at the Albert Hall at Selside - the Resolution on the provision of NHS Dentistry was presented by Staveley WI and was passed. It was also one of the most interesting AGMs with a Spice Girl, a Barrister and speakers from Women's Aid reporting on different forms of domestic abuse.

Joyce outlined a number of potential trips she had researched. The Competition for a decorative bottle was won by Rosie with Linda second and the raffle was won by Anita with Sandra Kaye second.

Our next meeting will be on Thursday 11th July 2024. If you wish to join the WI please contact our Honorary Secretary Helena Nixon on 01524 781048.

The Book Drop is a community library service provided by Westmorland & Furness Council but manned by village volunteers.

Local History Society Visit to Dalton Hall

In May the Burton, Holme & District Local History Society were fortunate to be given a guided tour of Dalton Hall by Francis Mason-Hornby.

The Hall was originally a five bay Georgian house. In 1858 Italianate bays were added to the left and right hand side - as shown in the black & white photograph at right. The architects were Paley and Austin of Lancaster.

The present Hall was built on part of the site, for Mr and Mrs A.F. Mason-Hornby in 1973. The building was the last commission for Mr Clough Williams - Ellis Architect, (of Portmerion fame) in 1969. The estate was purchased by the Hornby family in the 19th century and remains in the family today.

The Local History Society members thanked Francis for a very informative visit.

News from Burton Memorial Hall

This month I'm starting with thank you's again: a big one to everyone who came along and supported our fashion show at the start of June, and to those who joined us for the mid-monthly coffee morning and used booksale, both of which were enjoyable occasions that helped raise funds for keeping the hall going.

Also to those who came along to the AGM in early June, where we were saddened to lose several members of the committee. My grateful thanks for all their hard work and support for the hall over many years go to those who have retired this year - our long-standing secretary/manager Helen Dawson, Kathleen Hayhurst, Matthew Scott, Nicola Little, Nicola Stephens, and Molly Long - all of them will be greatly missed.

At the AGM I was honoured to be elected Chair once again, with Chris Nolan as Vice-Chair, Raegan Preston remaining as Treasurer, Viv Preston taking on the role of Minutes Secretary, and we, along with Barry Morgan, Brian Christian, Jon Halligan, and Stephanie Micklethwaite, form the management committee along with the representatives of those user groups named in the hall's constitution.

This does, of course, mean that the committee is now below strength, so we need to recruit new people to join the team. If you would like to know more about what is involved please give me a call for a chat. If you don't feel able to join the committee itself, but could offer to help at events please join our volunteer mailing list (contact me if you'd like to join), it's not overly demanding and we do have a lot of fun doing things.

Talking of events, our next one will be Strawberry Saturday in the main hall on 6th July from 2pm till 4pm, where we will have on offer a feast of strawberry-ness: cakes, desserts, ice cream, strawbs and cream, strawberry plants, our strawberry-themed gift stall, plus colouring sheets for the little ones. Do please come along! Our July mid-monthly coffee morning will be on Saturday 20th July, from 10am till 11.30am, with a great choice of home-made cakes, plus we will again have Kingsharp in the car park from 10am till 12 noon to sharpen any blunt things that you need doing.

Also, we are now taking bookings for our annual Christmas Market, which this year will take place on Saturday 9th November from 10am till 4pm and tables are £15 each. Please contact me if you'd like to book a table.

Finally, as Helen has retired as the bookings manager for the hall, may I remind you that room hire bookings may now be done via our new online Hallmaster system, which you can find on the hall's website <https://bmh.burtonweb.org.uk> book-online, or if you don't have internet access please give me a call.

Kind regards,
Anne Nichols
Chair of the Burton Memorial Hall Management Committee

Poetry by Peter Kay

Peter Kay is an author of books and poetry and now lives in the village. He has kindly shared three of his poems with the Burton News, along with a short autobiography. This is the first of the three. We hope you enjoy it.

Peter Kay – Short Biography

I am a local writer, author and poet. I lived and worked in the Bradford district for 35 years, before moving to Burton last September. I had lived and worked in Lancashire for 37 years beforehand. I have published four books, 2 travel memoirs, a fictional story and an illustrated children's book. I have also had around a dozen poems published in various publications and on-line. I am currently writing a murder mystery story set in the thirties, helping a RAP star write his autobiography and working on my first poetry pamphlet.

Dear Deidre

Travel ironed shirts, rolled up jeans, odd socks, dogs in the bedroom, and she asks, how long would I survive a Zombie apocalypse.

It's been a year, maybe two, she's careworn, free,
white walls held her for over six months.

She can't decide how you hang toilet paper.

is it over or under, wants to know

why round pizzas come in square boxes,

how they know that a famous dog food has a new and improved flavour. She's dressed in yellow: blouse, skirt, leggings, shoes,

asks if I could time travel, would I go forward or back and which part of my body I most want to change. Do I have an imaginary friend.

Hers is called Petrovich and he's been to the moon,
it isn't made of green cheese.

Do you eat or drink soup and if you had a superpower, what would it be. She'd be invisible and discover whether mermaids exist, and if they do, whether they lay eggs or give birth to live babies.

I pass her another shirt.

Peter Kay

It's a date in Burton & Clawthorpe! History notes by Kath Hayhurst

The Royal Oak - A History - Part One

In 1661 Burton became a Market Town by a Charter granted by King Charles II. When the Rev. Thomas Machell rode through Burton in 1692 he said 'There are some good Inns lately built'. Unfortunately he didn't name them.

The earliest reference to the Burton Royal Oak I can find is in 1757, when the first stage-coach came to the village; in place of pack horses. In a survey of 19,000 British Inn names, Royal Oak was the 7th most popular. The original tree was the one Charles II hid in, after the battle of Worcester.

The Royal Oak at Keswick was previously called The Oak, and Royal was added later, after Charles II's restoration to the throne. However, the Royal Oak at Cartmel is named after a battle ship which was built in 1667.

To be Sold in several Lots,

At the Royal Oak in Burton, in the County of Westmorland, on Wednesday the 28th. Day of October 1767, the Sale to begin at 7 o'Clock in the Evening: The Tithes Farms and parcels of Land hereinafter mentioned.

In 1763 the first stage-coach drawn by six horses came twice weekly to the Burton Royal Oak. It travelled at six miles per hour. 1767 saw a sale of various plots of land in Milnthorpe, Holme, and Preston Patrick, advertised as taking place at the Royal Oak - see above. By 1786 the Mail coach stopped there, because the first Post Office was part of the building.

In 1796 John Rigg was the landlord, and in 1798 he had a sale of coppice wood at the Inn.

Readers may have realised that at least one of your editors is addicted to the Wordle and associated puzzles from the NYTimes. Wordle is not possible to reproduce in a paper format - so how about trying this CONNECTIONS grid. The words are jumbled up at the moment but you need to sort them into 4 groups of 4 words with an obvious connecting theme. We will publish the answer in one week on the Facebook page.

On His Majesty's Service

Dear Friends,

On 4th July we have an opportunity to elect Members to the Parliament of the United Kingdom. Some of those who are elected will know that they should serve those who elected them. Some may talk more about wanting to serve the cause of justice. And some (secretly) may be hoping that their time as an MP will serve their own egos and personal ambitions. But ultimately, they all have a responsibility to the Lord Jesus Christ, even those who think they have no connection to him.

Why do I say that? 2000 years ago, the apostle Paul stood in the centre of Athens, surrounded by grand public buildings and temples to various gods, and declared that the God who created each Athenian had “set a day when he will judge the world with justice by the man he has appointed. He has given proof of this to all men by raising him from the dead” (Acts 17:31). Each citizen would need to give an account of his life to the risen Jesus. And rulers would certainly not escape this reckoning, quite the reverse, for Jesus had said, “From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded.” (Luke 12:48)

Very few of those who lived within the Roman Empire had any role in choosing who governed them; they couldn't vote to change their emperor! But Paul did urge them to pray “for kings and all those in authority, that we may live peaceful and quiet lives in all godliness and holiness.” (1 Timothy 2:1-2)

Paul's prayer tells our MPs what they should do – they should aim that those who are godly and holy (by Jesus' standards) will be able to live peaceful and quiet lives. And they should aim for those who reject such goodness and purity to not have peace and quiet.

This prayer also reminds us how the Bible will shape us as voters – teaching us not to vote for those who just give us what we want in life, but to look for candidates who will make life peaceful for anyone who obeys God's laws. And not forgetting to keep praying “for kings and all those in authority”.

Sincerely,

Graham Burrows

Call for Advertisers

Do you run a small company offering services to residents of Burton? If so, would you like to advertise with us? If you are in receipt of this newsletter then you know it is distributed each month (except Jan) to all households in Burton, Dalton and Clawthorpe. Our, very reasonable, rates are quoted below. You do not have to run your advertisement for a full year but just for those months that are most appropriate to your business. If you do take a full year's subscription then, as an introductory offer, we will double the size of your advert for the first month*.

Information

A "one year" advert space purchase covers 11 editions of BurtonNews (we publish from February to December inclusive each year), and can be bought at any point in the year. Advertisers should design their own material and submit it to the Editors by the 20th of the month prior to the month of publication (e.g. 20th July for inclusion in the August edition). Advert dimensions are given in the table below.

Colour adverts are welcome, as the web version of Burton News is displayed in colour. However, the print magazine is published in grayscale so thought should be given to how colour will display when printed. Low contrast between background and text (e.g. white text on a light colour) does not convert well to grayscale printing. Early submission will allow the Editors to give feedback on appearance.

Size	One Year	6 Month	3 Month	1 Month
1/8th	£ 66	£ 35	£ 20	£ 8
1/4tr	£ 125	£ 70	£ 35	£ 15
1/2 page	£ 250	£ 140	£ 70	£ 25
Full Page	£ 500	£ 280	£ 140	£ 50

Advert size in centimetres
	Width	Height

1/4tr Portrait	6.0cm	9.3cm
1/2 page Landscape	12.5cm	9.3cm
Full Page	12.5cm	18.5cm

Please contact the editors on burtonnewseditor@gmail.com for advice.

* A 1/8 page will be published at 1/2 page size or 1/4 at full page size. Other combinations on discussion but would require a change in layout that the editors cannot guarantee to do.
